Subject: Legal notice for dishonour of cheque no. 004512 dated 12 September 2026 for ₹2,50,000

Background & Facts

1. My client, Mr. Rohit Sharma, supplied goods to you under invoice no. INV-2026-118 dated 1 September 2026 for a sum of ₹2,50,000, which you accepted without objection.
2. In discharge of that liability you issued cheque no. 004512 dated 12 September 2026 drawn on State Bank of India, Saket branch, for ₹2,50,000 in favour of my client.
3. On presentation on 15 September 2026 the cheque was returned unpaid by the bank with the remark "funds insufficient", as recorded in the return memo of the same date.
4. My client informed you of the dishonour by telephone on 16 September 2026 and by email on 17 September 2026, and you have neither made payment nor replied.

Legal Demand

5. You are called upon to pay my client the sum of ₹2,50,000 within fifteen days of receipt of this notice.
6. You are further called upon to pay interest on that sum at 12% per annum from 15 September 2026 until payment, and ₹5,000 towards the cost of this notice.

Response Time & Closing

Should you fail to comply within the period stated above, my client has instructed me to initiate proceedings under section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, and such other civil and criminal proceedings as may be advised, at your risk as to costs.
A copy of this notice is retained in my office for record.
